

WILDSIDE 2022 – WILDSIDE CELEBRATES 25 YEARS!

CALL FOR PROJECTS:

Wildside 2022 wants to support Montreal's vitality and creativity

May 25, 2021 - With this 25th Anniversary Festival, Wildside wants to support the Montreal community by offering time and space for development, and by encouraging experimentation and ingenuity. Wildside 2022 will take a new shape to honour 25 years of exciting performance in Montreal.

This year, Wildside will support projects that are already under development, and support them through the next stage of their growth, until their first encounter with an audience. We are looking for projects that are experimental, and every theatrical and performative form is welcome. Multidisciplinary works and shows with more than one theatrical form are encouraged, be they live, in-theatre performances or online digital presentations.

Please note: projects must have completed at least one stage of development. These must now be ready for the next stage in their evolution, leading up to their first meeting with an audience.

Wildside is looking for projects that are available for a development-residency period between November 8 and November 29, 2021; and tech and performances between January 3 and January 22, 2022. We are seeking artists who are willing to work in a generous and collaborative way.

How To Apply

Please submit 1 page project description.

-How would the development-residency contribute to the development of your work? Why you and your project should be part of Wildside 2022?

-Archival video, and other archival visuals such as photos

Please note: archival footage of initial development is required as part of the application.

-Team biographies

-Script or other support materials

Wildside will provide

-2 consecutive weeks development/rehearsal in the performance space in November 2021

-1 week in January for full technical rehearsals and five public performances

-Production support

-Promotion through the Centaur website and its communications department

-Ongoing and project-specific dramaturgical and outside-eye support from the festival curator

-$3,000.00 fee
